Mr. Gerard Zivy
10 chemin de la Chevillarde
1208 Geneva
Switzerland

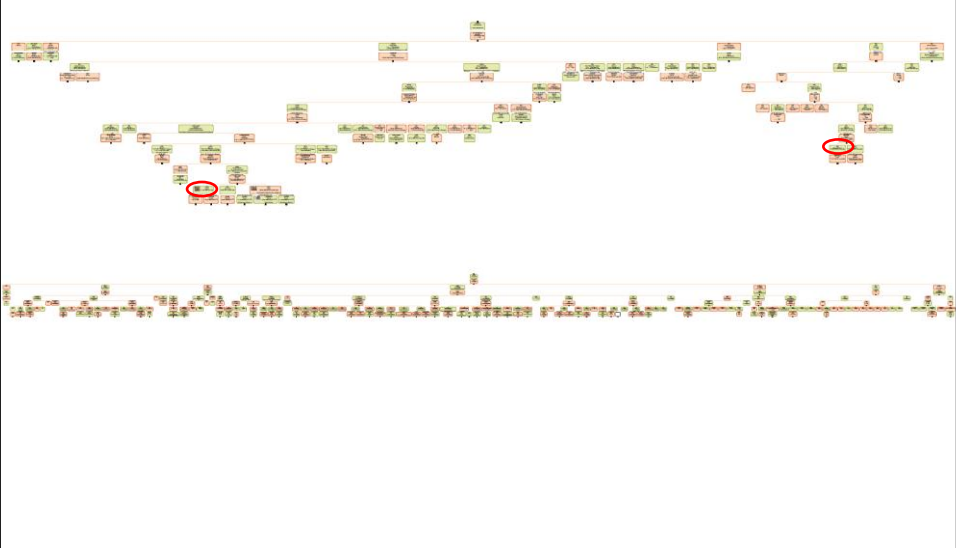

Dear Gerard,

I think it is an amazing bit of luck that my wife and I happened to stay at the Hotel Du Dragon in Strasbourg last May, where Jean Zimmer is the proprietor, and that he knew you. I had in fact been trying to find you because of your earlier contact with Joan and my recent progress in genealogy, which I thought might be of interest.

We had been in Paris before traveling to Strasbourg, and in Paris I found a Gerard Zivy listed in the telephone directory at rue Octave Feullet. I came close to calling, but I decided it would be better to write after returning home, since I was not certain that the Paris Gerard Zivy was the same one who had contacted Joan. When Jean Zimmer told me you lived in Geneva and he thought he could provide your address, I waited before writing.

Ein Gedicht

*K*ippenheimer till the last nutmeg falls
*U*nvarnished by his love for books,
*R*emaining true in all he cherishes
*T*o the land that made him exile,

*S*ent him yet a child across the waters
*A*nd never could expunge itself,
*L*ingering past youth and into manhood
*O*f home that will not be forgot.
*M*ention it and you will see the stirring
*O*f his eyes that conjure vistas
*N*ow but memories before the mad day

*M*ade him find a new beginning --
*A*merica that lets him seek his loss
*I*n books, discovering once more
*E*urope of the spirit where his young blood
*R*ose to be a Kippenheimer.
